PARAGRAPHS 9 and 10 of the Secretary's Statement of Material Facts and Conditions:

(9) Information on the Secretary's student loan portfolio, including information regarding the borrower's loan servicers and loan consolidation;

(10) Information on the Secretary's student loan portfolio, including information regarding the borrower's repayment options and loan consolidation;

(A) Information to be provided

The information to be provided to the borrower under paragraph (11)(A) shall include the following information:

(i) To the extent practicable, the effect of accepting the loan to be disbursed on the eligibility of the borrower for other forms of student financial assistance.

(ii) Information on the total amount of principal and interest that is expected to be paid to either the borrower or the Secretary.

(iii) Information on the total amount of interest that is expected to be 107B–E of the title, a Federal Direct PLUS Loan, or a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, the option of the borrower to pay the interest while the borrower is in school.

(iv) The total estimated disbursement for attendance, the institution, during regular terms and summer school, if applicable, and the consequences of not maintaining eligibility for such disbursement.

(v) An explanation of the importance of contacting the appropriate officers at the institution of higher education to ensure that all financial aid options are explored, and a description of the steps that the institution can provide and counseling, including information regarding the borrower's repayment options and loan consolidation.

(vi) Information on the borrower's cumulative debt, including—

(I) a range of levels of indebtedness of—

(I) borrowers of loans under section 107B or 107B–E of this title; and

(II) undergraduate, graduate borrowers of loans under section 107B, 107B–2, or 107B–E of this title; and

(II) the average cumulative indebtedness of other borrowers in the same program as the borrower at the same institution.

(III) the obligation of the borrower to repay the full amount of the loan, regardless of whether the borrower completes or does not complete the program in which the borrower is enrolled (unless the borrower qualifies for discharge of the loan).

(V) The likely consequences of default on the loan, including adverse credit reports, delinquent debt collection procedures under Federal law, and litigation.

(VI) Information on the National Student Loan Data System and how the borrower can access the borrower's records.

(X) The name of and contact information for the individual the borrower may contact if the borrower has questions regarding the borrower's rights and responsibilities or the terms and conditions of the loan.

(iv) Disclosure of reimbursements for service on advisory boards

(I) Disclosure

Each institution of higher education participating in any program under this subchapter and part C of subchapter I of chapter 34 of title 42 shall disclose annually to the Secretary and to the nonstudent expenses paid or provided under section 1070b(d) of title 42 to any employee who is employed in the financial aid office of the institution, or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to such programs, or who is a member of the governing board of such institution, the aggregate amount of such expenses, including—

(I) the amount for each specific instance of reasonable expenses paid or provided;

(II) the name of the financial aid official, other employee, or agent to whom the expenses were paid or provided;

(V) the dates of the activity for which the expenses were paid or provided.

(VI) a brief description of the activity for which the expenses were paid or provided.

(C) Report to Congress

The Secretary shall summarize the information received from institutions of higher education under subparagraph (B) and shall transmit a report containing such summary to the Committee on Education and the Workforce of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions of the Senate.
